

April 2015 Examination – P64 Private medical insurance practice

Question	Syllabus learning outcome(s) being examined
1	2 – Understand private medical insurance products and principles
2	2 – Understand private medical insurance products and principles
3	4 – Understand the application of claims and policy administration
4	5 – Understand legislation and regulation in relation to private medical insurance
5	3 – Understand the application of pricing and underwriting for private medical insurance 4 – Understand the application of claims and policy administration
6	2 – Understand private medical insurance products and principles 6 – Understand the distribution of private medical insurance
7	1 – Understand the relationship between public and private medical provision
8	4 – Understand the application of claims and policy administration
9	5 – Understand legislation and regulation in relation to private medical insurance
10	2 – Understand private medical insurance products and principles
11	6 – Understand the distribution of private medical insurance
12	3 – Understand the application of pricing and underwriting for private medical insurance 5 – Understand legislation and regulation in relation to private medical insurance
13	2 – Understand private medical insurance products and principles
14	1 – Understand the relationship between public and private medical provision
15	3 – Understand the application of pricing and underwriting for private medical insurance 4 – Understand the application of claims and policy administration
16	2 – Understand private medical insurance products and principles 3 – Understand the application of pricing and underwriting for private medical insurance
17	3 – Understand the application of pricing and underwriting for private medical insurance 4 – Understand the application of claims and policy administration