J09: 2017–18 edition

Web update 3: 14 February 2018

Please note the following update to your copy of the J09 2017–18 study text:

Pensions advice

The plan to introduce a new income tax exemption to cover the first £500 of pensions advice provided by an employer to an employee was initially dropped from Finance Act 2017. It was reintroduced in Finance (No. 2) Act 2017 and takes retrospective effect from 6 April 2017. The exemption replaces a previous, more restrictive exemption, which was limited to £150.

This change affects the following section:

- Chapter 4, section A9, page 4/13.

Dividend allowance

Finance (No. 2) Act 2017 reinstated that the dividend allowance will be reduced from £5,000 to £2,000 from the tax year 2018/19. It remains at £5,000 for 2017/18.

This change affects the following sections:

- Chapter 4, section A9, page 4/13.
- Chapter 4, section E2A, page 4/45.

Deemed domicile

Finance (No. 2) Act 2017 reinstated, with retrospective effect from 6 April 2017, new rules for deemed domicile:

- A non-domiciled individual, who has been resident in the UK for at least 15 of the preceding 20 tax years, is treated as UK domiciled for the purposes of income tax, capital gains tax (CGT) and inheritance tax (IHT).
- A non-domiciled individual, who was born in the UK with a UK domicile of origin, and who is resident in the UK for the relevant tax year, is also treated as UK domiciled for income tax and CGT purposes. This will only apply, however, if the individual has been UK resident in at least one of the previous two tax years.

Various transitional provisions have also been introduced, e.g. in respect of overseas trusts and the cleansing of mixed funds.

This change affects the following sections:

- Chapter 4, section A1E, page 4/5.
- Chapter 4, section D3C, page 4/41.

State pension age (SPA)

Please add the following sentence to the end of the fourth paragraph of chapter 4, section E3, page 4/49:

In July 2017, the Government confirmed that the SPA will rise as proposed by the report.

Class 2 National Insurance contributions (NICs)

In its policy paper on the abolition of Class 2 NICs, dated 7 November 2017, the Government announced the delay of the abolition by one year. This delays the previously announced abolition from 6 April 2018 to 6 April 2019.

This change affects the following section:

- Chapter 4, section A4, page 4/8.
