Qualification overview

The CII Level 7 Certificate in Insurance Market Specialisation is an advanced level qualification, specifically designed for those working in the insurance market.

Who is this qualification for?

This qualification is particularly appropriate for:

- Practitioners who wish to develop their research skills and apply them in a specific subject area of relevance to the insurance market
- Those who have conducted sufficient initial research to reach a clear idea regarding the scope of a research proposal and the research resources available. Ideally the subject matter chosen should be capable of being researched through relevant interviews and be supported by a wide range of information sources.

Benefits for individuals and employers

The CII Level 7 Certificate in Insurance Market Specialisation will allow you to:

- create learning matched precisely to your job role, responsibilities and aspirations;
- develop your knowledge of issues particularly relevant to insurance practitioners;
- gain real understanding of a key chosen topic through in-depth research and analysis, with potential to add business benefits for your employer; and
- indicate to your employer, clients and peer group your commitment to professional development, helping you achieve your career ambitions.

Summary of content

The qualification consists of one compulsory unit which is assessed by a 10,000-11,000 word dissertation on an insurance topic of your choice.

Entry and professional completion requirements

Entry requirements

In line with other CII qualifications there are no entry requirements for this qualification.

However, we would recommend that you hold the following minimum qualifications or their equivalent: the Diploma in Insurance or 3 A levels or equivalent, as these are good indicators that you will have the necessary study skills required to complete the qualification. This qualification is at Level 7 – approximately Masters level – so experience of study at degree level would be highly beneficial.

Additional completion requirements

There are no additional completion requirements for this qualification.
