Clair Brand ACII Chartered Insurer Practitioner

CII Vice President

Clair Brand has wide experience in the UK financial services and general insurance industry. She has spent her working career with two companies – a pensions specialist (NPI) and a regulatory compliance consultancy (Branko Ltd) which she joined in 2003.

As an Associate Director of Branko Ltd, Clair leads its compliance offering, typically tackling the largest and more complex assignments. In this role she advises general insurance firms on a number of regulatory matters including becoming and remaining FCA authorised and runs a number of highly acclaimed compliance workshops

Clair is qualified as an ACII and holds Chartered Status. Clair was on the council of the Insurance Institute of Royal Tunbridge Wells for over 20 years. She has held a number of positions including: CPD officer, careers officer, deputy president and was president in 2003 and 2012 to 2013. She served on Representative Council and CII Board from 2007 to 2013 and is holder of an Exceptional Service Award.

Clair has two sons and is a keen amateur springboard and platform diver. In her spare time she helps run and coach in her local diving club and enjoys competing in national and international masters diving championships.
