

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTES

David Hertzell

CII Board Member (Lay)

David Hertzell was Managing Partner of city law firm DAC until 2006. He was appointed a Law Commissioner in 2007 until 2014. He previously chaired the Airmic (the UK risk managers association) Captive Insurance Focus Group, was an Airmic Board member and a member of the BSI drafting committee on risk management. He is past president of the British Insurance Law Association and Chair of the Chartered Insurance Institute Professional Standards Committee. He chaired the government Taskforce on insurance fraud. As Law Commissioner David was responsible for various commercial and common law reform projects, including the recent major reforms of insurance contract law, the law relating to the supply of goods and services, unjustified threats in Intellectual Property litigation and the fiduciary duties of investment intermediaries.