About us

The Chartered Insurance Institute (CII) Broking Community is a specialist community dedicated to supporting those working in the insurance broking sector.

The community exists to support the raising of standards and levels of technical competence through the provision of resources. Creating opportunities to network, engage and help members develop is a priority.

Key focus areas:

- Sector-specific thought leadership on topical issues including legislative changes, ESG and market trends
- Professionalism and standards
- Talent attraction and retention
- Diversity and inclusion
- Good practice engagement and guidance with the wider sector.

Practical, relevant business advice and support

Whether you are just starting out in broking, or you are an experienced practitioner, being a part of the CII Broking Community can benefit you. Membership is free for Chartered Insurance Institute members.
